SHERIFF SMALL-DEBT AND CIRCUIT COURT.

The Small-debt Court was formerly stationary like the Ordinary Court, but by the Act of Parliament 1, Victoria, cap. 41, Circuit Courts, for the trial of Small-debt cases (actions for sums under £8 6s. 8d.), are established in addition to the Ordinary Small-debt Court; and the Sheriff is ordained to divide the county into districts, and hold a certain number of Courts in each annually.

Appeals against the Sheriff's judgments in these Courts are not competent, unless on the ground of corruption, malice, or oppression, on the part of the Judge; and the decrees may be immediately put in execution by arrestment or poiding; imprisonment for small debts being abolished. Written proceedings, or the assistance of professional men, are not allowed, unless with leave of the Court.

The Ordinary Small-debt Court at Aberdeen is held on Thursday, at Ten o'clock, A.M., weekly, during sessions of the Court, and once or twice during vacation.

John G. Leslie, Clerk.

The Circuit Small-debt Courts are held at Tarland, Inverury, Huntly, Turriff, Old Deer, and Fraserburgh, once every three months.

It is optional to creditors to cite their debtors to the district Court of their domicile, or to the head Court at Aberdeen.

BURGH OR BAILLIE COURT.

The jurisdiction of the Magistrates (Provost and Baillies, though it is a Baillie that usually sits in Court) is equal to that of the Sheriff within their territory—the royalty of the Burgh—but it is not exclusive of the Sheriff's authority, except, perhaps, in questions strictly belonging to the police of the burgh, which more properly pertain to the Magistrates.

Thomas Blaikie, Provost.

Baillie Leslie Clark.

„ James Forbes.

Baillie Lewis Crombie.

„ George Henry.

James Simpson, Legal Assessor.—A. & J. Cadenhead, Procurators-Fiscal.—Town-Clerk, Clerk.—Town Serjeants, Officers of Court.

The Court day is Saturday, at Eleven o'clock, A.M., during the same sessions as the Sheriff Court.

JUSTICE OF PEACE COURT.

The office of Justice of the Peace was introduced into Scotland in 1609. As signified by their name, the Justices judge in riots and breaches of the peace—they enforce the laws against beggars and vagrants—the game laws—and, with the Commissioners of Supply, they regulate the highways, bridges, and ferries. The execution of various penal statutes, revenues, laws, and others, is also committed to them. The quarter-sessions are held on the first Tuesday of the months of March, May, August, and last Tuesday of October. Special sessions are occasionally held.

Francis Gordon, Clerk.—John G. Leslie, Clerk-Depute.

John D. Milne, Procurator-Fiscal.

JUSTICE OF PEACE SMALL-DEBT COURT,

Any two Justices of Peace, Judges.

Francis Gordon, Clerk.—John G. Leslie, Clerk-Depute.

This is a Criminal Court, constituted under the Aberdeen Police Act (14th May, 1829), for the trial of offences against the Act, breaches of the peace, theft under the value of 10, reset, fraud, &c. &c. It sits daily in the Old or Baillie Court-house, at Eleven, o'clock, A.M.

The Sitting Magistrate, Judge.

A. & J. Cadenhead, Procurators-Fiscal.—Town-Clerk, Clerk.

* * All the Courts, except the Baillie and Police Courts, meet in the New Court-house, Castle Street. If not exceeding $\frac{1}{2}$ oz.1d. | If not exceeding 2 oz.4d.
.. 1 oz.2d. | .. 3 oz.6d.

And so on, adding 2d. for every ounce up to 16 ounces, beyond which, with the following exceptions, no packet, whether subject to postage or not, can be received:—

1. Parliamentary petitions and addresses to Her Majesty.
2. Parliamentary proceedings.
3. Letters and Packets addressed to or received from places beyond sea.
4. Letters and Packets to and from Public Departments.
5. Deeds, if sent open, or in covers open at the ends; they may be tied with string and sealed, in order to prevent inspection of the contents, but they must be open at the sides, that it may be seen that they are entitled to the privilege.
6. Bankers' parcels despatched from London, and specially delivered at the General Post Office, under certain regulations.

With these exceptions, all Packets exceeding 16 ounces will be immediately forwarded to the Dead Letter Office, to be returned to the writers.

It is optional with the public to send letters within the United Kingdom paid or unpaid; but, in the latter case, they are liable to a double rate of postage, as will be seen from the subjoined table—

Printed votes and proceedings in Parliament, or of the Colonial Legislatures, are charged—

Under 4 oz.	1d.
Above 4 and under 8 oz.	2d.
Above 8 and under 12 oz.	3d. and so on.

Such votes and proceedings, whether paid or unpaid, pass at these rates between places in the United Kingdom, and also to the Colonies by Packet. To those places to which there are no Packets, they may be forwarded by "Private Ship," at double the above rates. They are not, however, forwarded to the East Indies, via Southampton, nor to places through France, under the full rates of letter postage.

Postage Stamps are sold at the Post Office—Price

Labels, 1d. and 2d. each.

Penny Envelopes, 2s. 3d. a packet of 2 doz.

Twopenny do., 2s. 2d. a packet of 1 doz.

Stamped half-sheets, .. 2s. 3d. a packet of 2 doz, and these, when sold singly, or in less quantities, at the rate of $1\frac{1}{2}$ d. each.

Letters bearing stamps in value equal to the amount of postage chargeable according to the first or "prepaid" column of the foregoing scale, will be delivered free in any part of the United Kingdom. In cases, however, where stamps of a less value than the rate exigible have been used, the letter is chargeable, on delivery, with double the amount of such difference. For instance, a letter posted exceeding half an ounce and under one ounce, upon which a penny label has been put, will, on delivery, be charged twopence, being double the difference betwixt the label used and the proper one for the weight of the letter, which ought to have been adopted.

Stamps may be used for printed votes, Parliamentary proceedings, and on Foreign, Colonial, and ship letters proceeding outwards; but their use is prohibited from the Colonies or Foreign ports.

Letters for Foreign countries, and places beyond seas, having an insufficient number of stamps, will not be forwarded, but sent to the Dead-letter Office to be returned to the writer. And the same principle is applied to letters for Foreign countries, prepayment of which is required, when left at any Post-office with less than the full amount of such Postage.

Members of each House of Parliament are allowed to receive, by the post, petitions and addresses to her Majesty, and petitions addressed to either House of Parliament, not exceeding thirty-two ounces in weight, exempt from postage, provided such petitions and addresses be sent without covers, or in covers open at the sides. Should they exceed that weight, they will not require to be prepaid, but are charged according to their weight as unpaid letters with double the rates of Postage to which, if prepaid, they would be subject.

SHIP LETTERS.

Letters conveyed by private ship to places beyond seas are liable to a rate of,

Under $\frac{1}{2}$ oz.,.....	0s.	8d.
Above $\frac{1}{2}$ oz. and under 1 oz.,.....	1s.	4d.
Above 1 oz. and under 2 oz.,.....	2s.	8d.

And so on in proportion.

The Owners, Charterers, or Consignees, (resident in the United Kingdom,) and the Owners, Consignees, and Shippers of Goods on board vessels inward bound, are entitled to receive their Letters free from Sea Postage, to the extent, collectively, of six ounces in weight, by any vessel to any one such person. In the case of vessels coming from Ceylon, Mauritius, the East Indies, or the Cape of Good Hope, the letters may be, collectively, twenty ounces in weight, for an Owner, Charterer, or Consignee of any such vessel. The Owner, Charterer, or Consignee must be described as such on the address and superscription; and in the case of Owners, Shippers, or Consignees of goods, it must also appear by the ship's manifest that they have goods on board the vessel. Such persons are entitled to have their letters, which come within the above conditions, before the master of the vessel delivers the other letters in his charge to the Post Office.

* * Every person who shall, with intent to evade any duty of postage, falsely superscribe a letter as being the Owner, or the Charterer, or the Consignee of a vessel conveying the same, or as the Owner, or the Shipper, or the Consignee of goods shipped in such vessel, shall for every offence forfeit ten pounds.

REGISTRATION OF LETTERS.

Since January, 1841, a system of registration has been in operation applicable to all descriptions of letters.

Letters intended for registration must either be stamped or prepaid, and presented at the Post-office at least 30 minutes before the closing of the letter-box for the particular mail by which it is to be despatched.

The British registration fee is 1s., and must always be paid in money, and at the time of registration.

In the case of Foreign, Colonial, or Ship letters, registration extends to the port of despatch in the United Kingdom only.

Registration fee on such letters, 1s., and, in addition, the rate of postage to which they may be liable.

Letters addressed to France may be registered to their destination; and those passing through France, so long as they may remain in the French territory—the former on payment of double the French rate to place of destination, in addition to the British rate and British registration fee, and the latter on payment of the usual postage rate, and 1s. registration fee. The arrangements for carrying out the system of Registration have been made with a view of insuring the punctual delivery of registered letters; on their delivery, the parties to whom they may have been addressed will be required to acknowledge in writing their receipt.

THE INCOME TAX.

RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR COLLECTION.

The following is a copy of the official regulations which will be issued to every person for the purpose of assessments of profits in professions, &c. :—

County of _____ Parish of _____

In pursuance of an Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of her present Majesty, for granting to her Majesty duties on profits arising from property, professions, trades, and occupations, you are hereby required to fill up such statements as are applicable to your particular case, and deliver the same, under cover and seal, at my dwelling house, situate at _____, or at the office of the Commissioners, at _____, within twenty-one days from the date hereof, under a penalty of £20 and treble duty.

RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR INCOME.

The tax under this schedule extends to all trades, professions, employments, or vocations, carried on or exercised in Great Britain, or elsewhere, by persons residing in Great Britain, or carried on or exercised in Great Britain by any person, whether subjects of her Majesty or not, although not resident in Great Britain, and to every art, mystery, &c., carried on by them respectively, other than quarries of stone, limestone, slate, or chalk, coal mines, and other mines, iron works, gas works, salt works, water works, canals, docks, &c., right of markets, fairs, tolls, railways, and other concerns of a like nature.

The balance of profits of trade or manufacture is to be returned at the place where it is carried on, on an average of three years preceding; or, if set up within three years, on an average from the period of commencing the same, either ending on the day of the year when the annual accounts of the trade have been usually made up, or on the 5th of April, 184 ; or, if commenced within the year of assessment, according to such fair computation, on average, as to the best of your knowledge and belief you shall state, and shall be directed by the Commissioners.

In estimating the profits and gains in trade,

DEDUCTIONS ARE ALLOWED

For repairs of premises, or supply or repairs of implements, utensils, or articles employed, not exceeding the sum usually expended for such purposes, according to an average of three years.

For bad debts only, or such part thereof as shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioners to be such.

For any average loss not exceeding the actual amount of loss or adjustment.

And for the rent or value of any dwelling-house or domestic offices used for the purposes of trade—a sum not exceeding two-third parts of such rent.

NO DEDUCTIONS ARE ALLOWED

On account of loss not connected with, or arising out of trade, &c.

Nor for any sums employed or intended to be employed as capital therein.

Nor on account of capital withdrawn therefrom.

Nor for any capital employed in improvement of premises not occupied for the purposes of trade.

Nor on account or pretence of any interest which might have been made on capital if laid out at interest.

Nor on account of any annual interest, or any annuity, or other annual payment, payable out of such profits or gains.

Nor for any sum recoverable under an insurance or contract of indemnity.

Nor for any disbursements or expenses which shall not be money wholly and exclusively laid out on trade, &c.

Nor for any disbursements or expense of maintenance of the parties, their families, or establishments.

Nor for any sum expended in any other domestic or private purposes, distinct from the purposes of trade.

The profits on professions, &c., are to be returned on the amount of the preceding year, ending as before, subject to the like provision with respect to those profits as to profits in trade, or the setting up within the year of assessment.

The profits on all securities bearing interest payable out of the public revenue (except annuities, dividends, and shares payable out of any public revenue, or the interest of East India Bonds otherwise charged), and all discounts and interest of money, not being annual interest, payable or paid by any person whatever, are to be returned on the full amount of profits and gains arising therefrom with the preceding year.

The profit from foreign possessions and securities, or in the British plantations, or in any other of her Majesty's dominions, may be stated to, and assessed by, the Commissioners of London, Bristol, Liverpool, and Glasgow, or nearest to such place where the property shall have been imported, or the persons receiving the remittance or value thereof reside; or if imported or received in different parts, or in two or more of the outports, as above-mentioned, the whole profits are to be returned at each port; but they are to be assessed upon the aggregate amount at each port only where the major part of the value has been imported or received.

The returns of profits arising in any other manner than as above described, comprehending every possible source of profit, of whatever nature or kind (not particularly described in the other parts of the Act), may either be formed on an average of years, if in their nature these profits are uncertain in their annual amounts, or, if certain in their annual amount, on the profits of the preceding year.

The Act imposes the obligation of making returns not only on individuals for whose benefit the profits are received, but also on trustees, &c., receiving the properties of others, and state in what capacity you make the return—whether on your own account, or as trustee of any description for another, or as officer of any incorporation or company; and, acting in that capacity, you are liable to the same penalty for not making a due return of the profits you are accountable for as for your own profits.

You are not required to make any return of annuities, &c., payable in Great Britain out of any public revenues, or of the interest on India bonds, the duties of which are to be retained by the respective corporations or companies trusted with the payment of the same, unless the half-yearly payment of dividend does not amount to 50s.; nor are you required to make any return of rents, annuities, or interests of money, and other annual payments, payable to you by others residing in this kingdom (unless such payments are derived from property out of Great Britain), they being chargeable on the party by whom the payment is to be made, and will ultimately fall on you by way of deduction from the amount at the time the payment is made, without a particular assessment.

GENERAL DECLARATION.

I, ———, do hereby declare that all the particulars required in this notice to be returned as appertaining to me, in relation to the duties or profits of property, trade, or profession, contained in schedule —, are in every respect fully and truly stated, according to the rules and regulations of the Act of Parliament in that behalf made. Dated this day of , 184 .

THE COMMERCIAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF SCOTLAND offers to the Public the security of AN AMPLE SUBSCRIBED CAPITAL as a GUARANTEED FUND against contingencies, in combination with all the advantages resulting from participating in the Profits of the Company, on the MUTUAL INSURANCE PRINCIPLE; FIVE-SIXTHS of the ascertained PROFITS in the participating scheme are added every fifth year to the amount in each policy of this class in proportion to the sum Insured and the number of yearly premiums that have been paid thereon. By the plan thus adopted in allocating the surplus funds, no Office, whether proprietary or mutual, can with safety hold out greater prospects of future benefits to the Assured.

For the accommodation of those who prefer a certain future benefit to a prospective bonus, the Company grants policies at diminished rates, without any participation in the profits.

In the case of Insurances for Life on the non-participation scale, one-half of the premiums may remain on credit, interest at five per cent. being payable in advance.

Among the other branches of business transacted by the Company are—

INSURANCES payable on the party arriving at sixty years of age, or at death, if it occur before then.

INSURANCES FOR SHORT PERIODS.

INSURANCES ON JOINT LIVES and SURVIVORSHIPS.

ANNUITIES, present or deferred, to Widows or other Relatives, and,

ENDOWMENTS to Children.

THE importance of Fire Insurance is now so generally understood that it is unnecessary to demonstrate its value by illustration or example; but it nevertheless is of great importance to individuals possessed of Insurable Property to inform themselves, by inquiry and comparison, in what Office it is most advantageous for them to effect their Assurances, looking at once to the stability, character, and rates of the various institutions carrying on the business of Fire Insurance.

The grounds upon which the Directors of the FRIENDLY INSURANCE COMPANY claim a preference by Insurers are as follow:—

First, THE LARGE INVESTED CAPITAL of the Company.

Second, The high character which the Incorporation has maintained during its long existence (123 years) for a PROMPT AND LIBERAL SETTLEMENT OF CLAIMS.

Third, THREE-FOURTHS OF THE FREE PROFITS of the business being Septennially returned to the Assured, who are guaranteed from responsibility by the whole body of Proprietors, and by an INVESTED Capital greatly larger (with one exception) than that of any other Scotch Company, even those established for carrying on both Fire and Life Insurance; and thus, although a Proprietary Company, the FRIENDLY affords the advantages of a Mutual Insurance Company, without the concomitant responsibilities to which Members of such Institutions may be liable, if not under judicious management.

Fourth, A RETURN OF 20 PER CENT. was made to the Assured from 1832—39, and that return was not confined to Policies current during the whole of that period, but extended to the total amount of Premiums received during these years, whatever the duration of the Insurances.

 No expense attends the Transfer of Policies from other Offices

CONSTITUTION.

THIS ASSOCIATION was established in the year 1839, for the purpose of carrying on the business of Life Assurance in all its branches, on the most approved principles, under the advice of the ablest legal authorities both of England and Scotland, and with a regard to the law of both countries, so as effectually to secure the interests of the Assured residing in each. The English and Scottish systems of Assurance being thus incorporated in the constitution of this Association, parties insuring with the office in Scotland, besides participating in the profits of the Scotch business, are entitled to participate equally with the English Policy Holders in the profits derived from the extensive business carried on in England.

LOAN DEPARTMENT.—Policies effected with this Association immediately become available as a fund of credit, by means of which the Policy Holders may, on liberal terms, obtain LOANS upon undoubted personal security, upon redeemable annuity, or upon the security of any description of assignable income or property of adequate value.

ANNUITIES, immediate or deferred, and ENDOWMENTS for CHILDREN, are granted on favourable terms.

GENERAL REGULATIONS.—No charge is made for Entrance-money, Admission-fee, or otherwise, beyond the Stamp for the Policy. Losses paid within three months, or immediately, on discount being allowed. Liberal allowances made for Policies surrendered; and the whole business of the Association uniformly conducted on the most liberal principles, and with the strictest secrecy.

TEA AND COFFEE WAREHOUSE,

70 UNION STREET 70

(EAST CORNER OF ST. NICHOLAS STREET),

ABERDEEN.

ON opening the above Establishment, a short time ago, we intimated our resolution "to sell Teas of the finest quality on the lowest terms the Market would allow." That we have done so, the flattering share of support we have already received amply attests; for this support we feel grateful, and tender our warmest thanks.

Having devoted our attention to the Tea Trade exclusively, and been fully conversant with it in all its details for a number of years, we can with the greatest confidence say that at no time were we so able as at present to give our Customers such excellent value. From the present low price of Teas in the first Markets, the Public are entitled to expect an article greatly superior to what they are in the habit of receiving, their interest being often lost sight of in the anxiety to obtain large profits. Tea, above all things, requires great care in the selection of it, and those only who thoroughly understand the trade, and who devote their time and attention to it exclusively, can be expected at all times to keep a genuine article. We especially direct attention to some purchases just made by us of Teas; these are of a recent importation, and have been pronounced by some of the first "TASTERS" of Tea in London to be

"THE FINEST EVER IMPORTED FROM CHINA."

Interested individuals may endeavour to circulate a report, and insinuate that, unless a high price is paid, no good Tea is to be had; but, whilst the principle holds good that the finer Teas are the best value, owing to the duties on all kinds being the same, still we can offer a really useful FAMILY TEA from 3s. 8d. to 4s. per lb.

From those who have never yet had an opportunity of testing the quality of our Teas, we respectfully solicit being convinced that this is all that is requisite to secure the continued patronage of those who wish a superior article, and to whom economy is an object.

We subjoin a List of our Prices.

Black Teas.

THE SUBSCRIBER, in returning thanks for the very liberal support he has experienced from his numerous Customers since he has commenced his present Establishment, would respectfully intimate to them that he has now on hand a large and well-selected Stock of TEAS, of excellent quality; and on account of the present state of the Market, he is enabled to sell them at very moderate prices.

W. O. would also solicit attention to his Stock of COFFEES, both COLONIAL and FOREIGN, as being very superior. He will give his Customers the immediate advantage of the reduction of duty that has just taken place on the latter. He will make a point of allowing the same advantage on Sugars so soon as the contemplated change of duty on that article comes into effect.

Always on hand, an extensive and varied Stock of SUGARS, SPICES, FRUITS, COCOA, CHOCOLATE, SAGO, RICE; AMERICAN, DUNLOP, GOUDA, and SCOTCH CHEESE, and every other article in the GROCERY line. Also, WINES, CORDIALS, FOREIGN and BRITISH SPIRITS, LONDON PORTER, and EDINBURGH ALES, &c. &c.
